

GEN_VMT PENRAY 01 Tiles

PUBLIC SPACES / WORKSPACES / HI-FI & HOME CINEMA

Description

A set of small tiles formed by two different modules, that once connected generate regular and irregular grids, exploring different colors and combinations. A perfect solution for small spaces. This new set of tiles from the GEN_VMT collection, winner of the Red Dot Product Design Award 2020, is highly effective to reduce excess noise in various settings, adding an innovative interior design asset to an architectural project.

Sustainable and extremely durable, PENRAY 01 is a perfect match between functional properties and aesthetics. Based on a modular strategy we can create different interior design combinations. The smart use of color and the potential of 3D effect reinforce the potential of this generative pattern. GEN_VMT PENRAY 01 Tiles come in 12 units boxes, in two different sizes, which fill an area of 1.14m<sup>2</sup>.
